RIP Beautiful

All the birds have flown up and gone;
a lonely cloud floats leisurely by.
We never tire of looking at each

only the mountain and I.

So very proud of all of your accomplishments. It hasn't been the easiest of roads, but you continued to persevere, and reach the goals you set, including this amazing achievement. Take all that you have learned, and go forth in your life's journey with determination. Always remember to take it slow and steady along the road of life, and when it becomes overwhelming, put your cape on and continue on, like the superhero I know you are. There will be ups and downs, and you'll make so many memories along the way. Embrace them all; the good, bad, and ugly. They will all have lessons to learn. Be open to them all. Most importantly remember Mom has your back.

Congratulations Dalton!!!! Love Mom xoxo"

Trenton,

Stay true to yourself and your beliefs. We are so proud of all you have accomplished and we are looking forward to watching you achieve all your dreams and goals! We love you!

Chris,

We are so sorry your senior year didn't end like it should of and you didn't have the opportunity to experience all your senior year-end activities with your friends. We are beyond proud of everything you have accomplished. We know you'll do great on your journey to college. Keep up the excellent work!

Love,

Nathan (my cutest son (your words))

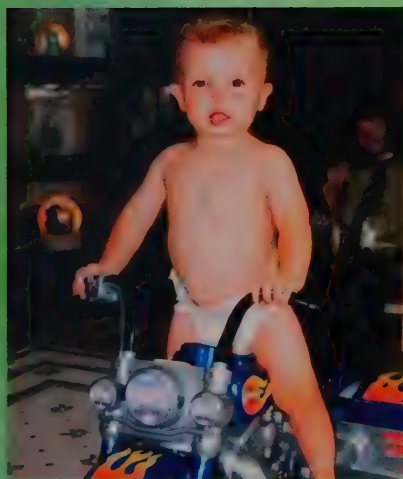

The time has come...I'm not quite sure how it came so quickly, but I want you to know how proud I am of you and your accomplishments. Through the struggles and senior year being a little tough I can honestly say it wasn't too bad. (Aside from covid!!! Stupid covid!!) You have always been such an easy going kid who likes to put a smile on everyone's face. Although I am scared and sad and nervous for your future entering the Airforce, I know whatever you do you will be great. This quote couldn't be anymore perfect.

"I closed my eyes for but a moment, and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. I may not carry you now in my arms, But I will always carry you in my heart. You have given me many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for me is telling others that you are my son." I love you forever and always!

Love Always,
Mom

(Bionca, Cody, Noah, Jj, Brad, Paisley, Waylon, Dayvene)

Just wanted to let you know I'm proud of you and the accomplishments you've made. Keep smiling and working towards your goal. You know I've always told you work hard for what you want and you will get it . I can't believe your already grown up . Seems like yesterday you were a little kid in a sports speedo now your graduating and off to the Air Force . Aim high kid .. I love you Love Dad

Bryce Tom,
To say that we are proud is an understatement.

We have watched in amazement as you have grown into the fine young man you are today, and we are watching with great anticipation to see what you become! Always continue to do good, be good, and be kind.

We love you!

Mom, Jeff, Cason and Dad

Hayden,

Mule,

Although this year doesn't look like any of us expected, you have worked too hard to let it go uncelebrated. We will miss seeing you in your tux for prom and crossing the stage as you graduate. In time, you will use this challenge to grow and become the person God created you to be. We are so proud of you, not only for graduating, but for being such a thoughtful and caring person. There is a big blue sky waiting right behind the clouds and we can't wait to watch you discover it! We love you!

Thomas:

Since day one you have always been so independent and focused. You always have a smile on your face! Your sincere character will allow you to succeed. Go forward and enjoy all life has to offer. Your future awaits. I couldn't be more proud of the son you are.

I Love You Always, Mom

"Congratulations Emily McLain and the entire class of 2020. Although your exit from high school will be anything but traditional, it is one you will always remember. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. We know you will go on to do remarkable things in your future."

Love Mom and Dad

We are so proud of your achievements, and as you begin your college years we know this is only the beginning of your journey. It is the road to your success, where your visions are created and your dreams come true. New friends will be made and you will learn new things about yourself. You will grow and find your independence.

If you feel the least bit overwhelmed remember our love for you, our hopes for you and our belief in you - then believe in yourself! You are smart, strong and kind.

Call us when you need to and call us just because! We want you to know how very much we love you and wish you the very best. Congratulations!
